Surveys in Europe

The following publications refer to surveys conducted by the European Value Systems Study Group (EVSSG), chaired by Prof Jan Kerkhofs, (Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium) and by the Working Group on Values and Social Problem Indicators in Contemporary Europe (VSPICE), chaired by Prof Walter Ruegg, (Universität Bern, Switzerland) both of which provided research grants to PNL/SRU for Research Fellowships and consultancy work on research design, data management and statistical analysis. Fieldwork for the EVSSG studies was carried out by Gallup and associates in various countries of Western Europe: the main VSPICE survey was carried out by universities and research agencies in their respective countries. Although the pilot survey for the UK was carried out in the UK by PNL/SRU and NOP, and the final core questionnaire of 40 items for use in all countries was designed by PNL/SRU, no funding was forthcoming from ESRC for the main survey in the UK.

Surveys of the Elderly in Residential Care

Specialist work on QoL as applied to the elderly in residential care, originally funded by the Personal Social Services Council, and later by ILEA as a Research Fellowship, led to a contract from DHSS Works Branch for a major study of QoL in residential homes for the elderly, which in turn led to the setting up of a separate Centre for Environmental and Social Studies in Ageing (CESSA) at PNL. Reports emanating from this programme whilst still within in SRU included:

Surveys in schools

Two small surveys conducted in schools, using self-completion questionnaires, are also relevant. Both replicate a selection of attitude scales which link back to work on values and QoL. Data from these surveys are downloadable, along with documentation, as SPSS saved files directly from John Hall's website (see links below)

The first survey was of all senior pupils in a girls' public school (ages 16 -18)

Trinians - Opinions and attitudes of senior girls at a public school: (Feb 1973, N=216)

The second survey was of all fifth formers (ages 15, 16) attending a North London comprehensive school (mixed 11 – 18) on a single day in Dec 1981.

Playground to Politics: A study of teenagers' attitudes (Dec 1981, N=142)
